

International Pedigree Stage Stop Sled Dog Race Slated for Park City Saturday,
February 5

Park City, Utah—February 4, 2011--The International Pedigree Stage Stop Sled Dog Race (IPSSSDR) concludes on Saturday, February 5 in Park City, Utah. Events begin at 10:a.m. at Quinn's Junction with special events culminating in the evening awards ceremony, which is open to the public.

The Park City schedule of events is as follows:

- 10 a.m. - noon Meet the Musher
(In the parking lot adjacent to the Park City Ice Arena at Quinn's Junction Sports Complex)
- Noon - 2 p.m. International Pedigree Stage Stop Sled Dog Race final stage
(Quinn's Junction Sports Complex to the Round Valley Trail and back)
- 2 p.m. - 3 p.m. Junior Musher Sled Dog Race
(Quinn's Junction Sports Complex to the Round Valley Trail and back)
- 6 p.m. IPSSSDR Awards Banquet
Prospector Square Lodge & Conference Center, 2200 Sidewinder Drive, (435) 658-3030. The banquet is open to the public. To reserve a seat, please contact secretary@wyomingstagesstop.org or call 307.231.2716.

For a complete schedule, visit the race website at www.wyomingstagesstop.org, contact the race via e-mail at bark@wyomingstagesstop.org telephone at (307) 734-1163.